We, the District Superintendents, present our composite report to this, the Ninetieth Session, of the Holston Annual Conference.

We desire first, to express our gratitude to Almighty God, for the manifold blessings which He has bestowed upon us, our Resident Bishop, our Brethren in the ministry, their families and the thousands of Methodists and friends of our church, who reside in this great Holston Territory.

During the year the doors of the Eternal World have swung ajar, and through them have entered the souls of Rev. M. C. Bruner, Rev. John F. Giles, Rev. E. R. Branam, Maude Withrow Crowder, wife of Rev. I. G. Crowder, Mrs. Hettie L. Lawson, wife of the late Rev. J. D. Lawson, Mrs. J. H. Amis, Mrs. John Sanders, Mrs. Josie Owsley, daughter of Rev. W. M. Bull, and an infant from the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Keebler.

The world-wide depression which has brought untold woe and misery to our fellow human beings everywhere, well nigh wrecking local, county, state and National institutions, has granted our section and our church no immunities. We have been wounded by the falling debris, of a crashing economic order. Foundations which seemed to be secure have been swept away. Securities, whose value had never been questioned have vanished, many of our people have had serious financial reverses, while a considerable number have lost every dollar they possessed. They are now facing the evening of life penniless.

Like every other section of this country, we have thousands of people unemployed, seeking in vain for an opportunity to earn the bare necessities of life, for themselves and their families. However, at this time in many sections considerable numbers of men are being re-employed, yet our optimism cannot lead us to believe that the coming winter will fail to present, the serious problems, of furnishing relief for the destitute.

While the foundations of the economic order have been trembling, and our people's hearts have been filled with great anxiety, their burdens have been made heavier by a severe drought, which has effected tremendously, the food supply for both men and beast.

We are informed that in our nation, one bank in every six has failed, one business enterprise in forty-two, while only one church in every twelve hundred has failed.

We had our share of bank failures. We have also had our full share of failures in other business enterprises, but so far as we know all of our churches have been able to survive.

FINANCES

Reports will show a loss in pastor's support, World Service, and all the other finances of the church. However, there are notable exceptions, some charges have actually exceeded, last year's record.

These losses have registered in the homes of our ministers and missionaries. In some instances the sting of poverty, has been painfully real. The necessities of life have not been too plentiful. While practically everyone has had to greatly adjust his standard of living and learn new lessons of economy.

The burdens and privations have not driven our ministers from their tasks, but on the contrary, the heroic has been challenged. The response made by them and their families is most heartening.

Nothing is more apparent than the absolute necessity of re-vamping our financial system, while several of our churches have a fairly good system of finance, the majority of our churches have a very poor system of finance.

E. Dow Bancroft, of Urbana, Ohio, conducted a Stewardship Mission throughout the conference beginning May 14th and continuing until July 8th. His contribution was a very great one.

We therefore, recommend that a Conference-wide Campaign be conducted early in the year for the purpose of helping our people see the value of sharing, and enrolling them as tithing stewards. This and this alone will solve our financial problems.

BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENTS

Owing to certain conditions in the economic realm, not many building enterprises have been launched. However, a splendid Recreational and Religious Education unit has been added to the plant of Second Church in Knoxville. A new church has been built at Daisy, a church building is being erected at Ross' Camp-ground to replace the one destroyed last spring by a tornado. A new church is being erected at East Ridge. Three parsonages have been erected, one at Daisy, one at Parrottsville, and one at Jacksboro. While numbers of churches and parsonages have been improved and placed in a splendid state of repair.

In recent years church property has been greatly improved. Many modern buildings have been erected, old buildings have been renovated and modernized.

In many communities, however, where "The little Red School House" has been replaced by strictly modern buildings, our church is still trying to carry on, in small, one celled, obsolete church buildings.

Since building people into the Kingdom of God is a most difficult task, no church should be unnecessarily handicapped, by inadequate buildings.

We recommend that wherever it is possible, additional rooms be added or new structures be erected commensurate with the needs of the community.

We also recommend that titles to church and parsonage property be carefully safeguarded, and that special effort be made to properly protect our church property by means of insurance.

PROMOTIONAL CONFERENCES

Early in the year our Resident Bishop, assisted by able representatives of our church, conducted very helpful Promotional Conferences in all the Districts. New vision and new life were brought to all who attended these most worth-while meetings.

A UNIFIED PROGRAM

During the year serious attempts have been made, by ministers and laymen, to work out a program based upon the actual needs of the field. Many worth-while discoveries and achievements were made. The fellowship resulting from these co-operative attempts, to face our task seriously, was most helpful.

RESERVE PENSION FUND

The freezing grip of the depression has not chilled the spirit of our Treasurer and Field Agent, Dr. Wm. M. Dye. He has traveled over 8,000 miles during the year, he has preached, lectured, and made effective personal contacts, throughout the conference. The receipts for this fund have been most encouraging. Surely, the Blessings of God have been upon Dr. Dye in this fine work.

We therefore, recommend that this program be continued.

WORLD SERVICE

Since Methodism was founded by one who said, "The world is my parish," she could not be a provincial church. We rejoice that our missionaries represent us around the world, but our hearts are made heavy, by the tremendous falling off of receipts, which seems to be almost church wide, yet some of our churches are giving, more than they gave last year; 1920 was the banner year for missionary giving. The entire church dedicated to missions $15,758,853 while in 1928 the same church gave, $7,660,940 or $1.92 per capita. In 1933 the per capita giving had fallen to 91 cents.

In our conference we registered a per capita giving in 1920 of $1.30 to missions, $2.07 for building, improvements and indebtedness and $3.66 for ministerial support.

In 1925 our per capita giving was, for building and improvements $5.03, for ministerial support $4.55, for world service $0.58. In 1929 the per capita giving was, for building and improvement, and indebtedness, $4.40, for ministerial support $4.65, and for World Service $0.63. While in 1932 our per capital giving was, for building, improvements and indebtedness $1.04, ministerial support $3.89, and World Service $0.246.

During the days of the Centenary Campaign, and the early years of World Service, our people caught a vision, of a redeemed world; they gave generously, but by 1925 the vision of the world program grew dim and we gave our attention and money to the greatest building program in the history of the church. By 1929 certain other items of the local budget had gained the ascendancy.

We need a better paid ministry, we need better buildings and other equipment, but we must restore the proper balance in our giving. A church that suffers its world vision to grow dim, will soon be able to neglect, and repudiate, its own local responsibilities. We recommend an aggressive program of missionary education using every available resource to enable our people to see and feel, their missionary privileges and responsibilities. For the very life of Methodism depends upon the leadership of the Christ, who leads, into all the world, if He leads at all.

A TRAINED MINISTRY

Everyone who thinks clearly is elated over the fact that educational standards are being raised, for candidates entering the ministry. An intelligent God must be interpreted intelligently, if He is interpreted at all.

We are informed that the work of the Board of Ministerial Training has been more thorough than in former years. More of the written work has been turned in on time, students have realized that serious efforts are required.

The Summer School of Ministerial Training, held at Athens this year had the largest enrolment in its history. All but two of the Holston Conference undergraduates were present. The grade of teaching was the best yet. Dr. L. C. Wright of Cleveland, Ohio, the special lecturer was superb.

With the present session of the conference ends the possibility of anyone becoming a member of the Conference who has not completed high school and had at least one year in college.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

We have three splendid schools, within the bounds of the conference, all of which have high standing, and are doing good work, yet like other institutions they are wrestling with heavy financial burdens. Drastic reductions have been made in operating expenses. While our schools have hosts of supporters and friends we feel that all Methodists should take pride in them and loyally support their own Educational Institutions.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The work of Religious Education is no longer looked upon as an experiment. Every wise pastor welcomes those aids which help him build his people into the Kingdom of God. The shortage of funds has prevented the accomplishment of some worth-while achievements, but in spite of economic handicaps, the work has gone forward under the competent direction of the Rev. H. G. Williamson. Daily Vacation Church Schools, Coaching Conferences, and Teaching Training Classes have been held throughout our territory. Perhaps the outstanding achievements for the year were the Summer Schools held at Athens and Crocket Springs. We recommend that this work be continued, that each charge give to it the greatest possible support.

LOYALTY

We deeply appreciate the loyalty of many of our people to the church. However, there is very great need of our membership being bound more closely together. It is true we must not become religious bigots, but while we love other churches and look upon them as religious allies, and pray the Divine blessing upon them, we must love best our own church and our own institutions.

A spirit of disloyalty has been caused unintentionally in some sections by friends of the church, criticizing officials, institutions, and laws of our church.

Methodism, like other institutions, resulting from human and Divine co-operation, is not infalible, neither indeed can be. However, no one can study her theology, review her march across the years, witness her program of healing and helpfulness, see her attempts to glorify the living Christ around the world, without feeling that Methodism is greatly blessed of God, and deserves the whole-hearted support of all who sail under her banners. When every Methodist becomes a booster our church will have a phenomenal growth and our Christ will have a much better chance to save the world.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

There has been a splendid revival of interest in young people's work. Many new Epworth Leagues have been organized, others have been revived. Epworth League unions have been organized in strategic places which have greatly stimulated young people's activities.

The Epworth League Institute was held at the Holston Assembly Ground this year. The attendance was better than last year. There is also an increase in the number of young people attending our regular church services.

EVANGELISM

During the year, many truly great revivals have been held. Other methods have been employed, such as Personal Evangelism, Decision Days in the Sunday School and Special Evangelistic Days. Hundreds of people have been converted and reclaimed, yet it is the consensus of opinion that evangelism during the past year has been most difficult. The love of many has grown cold. Economic problems have been so pressing that many of our folks have lost sight of the Living Christ. However, God has proved upon every occasion where an opportunity was presented that He is in our world, helping build the Kingdom and giving Himself to such communities and individuals as will receive Him.

We recommend that Evangelism at its best be given its rightful place in our churches. That such methods may be employed as will make our people aware of the presence and saving power of the Living Christ in their own lives.

LAY ACTIVITIES

The Laymen of the Conference, led by President Robb and the Vice-Presidents of the District, have been quite active this year. Worth-while results have been achieved. There seems to be unmistakable evidences of a revival of interest among the Lay Groups of our church. There is also developing a better understanding between Ministers and Laymen.

Other Lay forces which have not yet been liberated and utilized represent tremendous possibilities. We, therefore, recommend that each pastor and lay leader do his utmost to discover the Kingdom possibilities in each member of the church and assign him the task which he is best fitted to do. The Kingdom of God will be hastened when lay and ministerial forces unitedly face their common problems and co-operate fully in their solution.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Our age is characterized as the machine age. Stuart Chase says: "We ride a billion wild horses." American industry can easily produce in eight months what we can consume in twelve months. Our territory which for centuries has been guarded by lofty mountain ranges, is now being invaded and transformed from an agricultural section to an industrial section. Capitalists are looking this way with eager eyes. Phenomenal developments have already taken place and other developments of equal or greater proportions are being planned. The Cove Creek Dam which will submerge a vast area will bring problems of readjustment and splendid possibilities for expansion, model towns are to be erected under the supervision of the Government, therefore, our church should take such steps as will guarantee Methodism the opportunity to serve her share of the future inhabitants of that section. With the coming of industries which call our people from their former pursuits also comes the possibilities of exploitation and grave labor problems.

The hordes of unemployed men entreat us by day and haunt us by night. We are convinced that since this is our Father's world every human being has a right to earn a living.

Our church which was the first church to make a pronouncement upon social justice must hold up a standard which will provide a job for every man and guarantee alike the rights of both employer and employees.

We recommend that the church seriously tackle these difficult problems and give the necessary guidance toward reaching equitable solutions.

GOOD LITERATURE

Our church from its beginning has emphasized the importance of good literature. We have developed great facilities for the publication of worth-while books and periodicals. We recommend that the Christian Advocate be given the widest possible circulation in this territory and that our people be induced to purchase and read worth-while books as they come from the press.

PASTORAL ACTIVITIES

Just as there is no substitute for strong, convincing, preaching there is no substitute for pastoral work. The good pastor is the real builder of the church. He knows his people and is known and trusted by them. They confide in him and seek his counsel when the problems of life perplex them.

We recommend that every pastor cultivate the shepherd heart. That he seek as far as possible to aid people in solving their problems.

We would also recommend longer and more intensive pastorates, necessary changes should be made, but nothing is more destructive of Kingdom progress than that periodic restlessness, which siezes ministerial and lay groups, driving them to ask for a change, because they have discovered their pastor to be a normal human being, and, he has made similar discoveries concerning them.

WOMEN'S WORK

The women's organizations have had a good year. Some auxiliaries of the missionary societies will report an increase. Their study courses and splendid programs keep interest high, and interest always expresses itself.

The adies Aid Society and similar organizations have also assisted greatly in the building of the Kingdom.

COMPETITION BETWEEN CHURCHES

In this territory other religious denominations flourish by our side. Many communities have too many churches competing with each other. Other communities are without adequate religious privileges. We have discovered a strong desire on the part of ministers and laymen to consolidate churches whose creed and forms of church government are not too much in conflict.

We, therefore, recommend that the conference give this matter earnest consideration, that it take the necessary steps to produce equitable exchanges and consolidations.

CITIZENSHIP

Such a Government as ours places upon its citizens duties and responsibilities for which many are poorly trained, therefore, as a church we must guide our people in discovering their obligations as Christian citizens, in regarding the ballot as a sacred trust, capable of being effectively used in helping Christ rebuild the world.

TEMPERANCE

A desire for change no matter what the change may be, is universal. It has registered in Italy, Germany and Russia. The same desire has swept over the people of the United States. Many of our citizens feel that we need a balanced budget more than we need the blessing of God. Nothing is more evident than the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. However, we are proud that Methodism joined by other churches helped to keep our Holston territory near the border line. It is possible that if fair elections had been held our territory would have remained dry by a large majority.

Some ground has been lost in this most propitious time for the wets, our apathy will cost dearly, in money and human lives, but true Methodists cannot surrender. Therefore, we recommend that an extensive program of Temperance Education be carried on, that the church gird itself with the strength of the Almighty and storm the citadels of rum, until the diabolical traffic, with its attendant train of woe and misery, be driven from the whole world.

As we face the future, the magnitude of our task overwhelms us, the task of doing our share, in making the whole world safe for humanity, of providing the abundant life for every person, yet when we remember that the Omnipotent God, is the senior partner in this enterprise, that our Christ is here, climbing other calvaries, leading in person, in the building of His Kingdom, we face the future with high hopes and absolute confidence.

STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

As Methodists we believe in evangelism as a necessity for the maintenance of the spiritual life of the church, and for the bringing into the Kingdom those for whom Christ died. We believe in every form of evangelism that will serve as a means of bringing individuals to know God in Christ Jesus. We rejoice that during this Conference year more than seventeen hundred people have been received into the church from Preparatory Membership and on Profession of Faith. This would not have been possible except through the channel of evangelism. No doubt, different types have been used. Both personal and mass evangelism have been employed. The Church Schools and Epworth Leagues have been effective agencies for winning the younger people to Christ. We are convinced, however, that there is a need for what has been called "Conservation Evangelism." Many people within the church have seemingly lost their interest in the work of the Kingdom and do not have the rich Christian experience that is possible for them to possess. Therefore, we recommend that special effort be made during the ensuing Conference Year to win the church membership to a renewed loyalty to Christ and His Kingdom. We believe that this effort should be made largely by the pastors as their own evangelists, and with the help of the more active members of the church. May each of us be willing to be made "all things to all men that we may by all means win some."

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

To The Pastors and Laymen of the Holston Conference:

We, the Division of Religious Education in the Local Church, of your Conference Board of Education, whose responsibility it is to guide and promote the task of Religious Education among us, desire to make the following emphasis:

1. The Religious Educational approach to our common ministry falls increasingly, as should be the case, upon the shoulders of the pastor and other local leaders. The purpose of our program must register in the betterment of experience among our people in our Churches. Indeed, this approach must be made an open road to Christ.

2. Our Director, H. G. Williamson, for the past year has been carrying forward a work that until recently was in the hands of a number of workers in a varied approach. Through this year he has been conserving as best he could the advances already made. And in addition has made considerable headway in leadership training, and in direct supervision of much work, and in clarifying the point of view—all of which together makes an achievement of large proportions. We face the task of continuing this program with a greatly reduced personnel. However, with the close co-operation of the Conference Board, and the accumulating interest and enthusiasm of the pastors and lay leaders the future is filled with promise.

3. After careful study of the problems involved, the Division of Religious Education In The Local Church recommends that the Director proceed along the lines of this year's accomplishments, namely:

1. The continuance of leadership cultivation and guidance looking constantly toward the Local Church as creating and establishing its own leaders supported by the pastor who more and more finds this as the most effective way of guiding religious experience.

2. There is remaining, because of lack of local leaders, a considerable demand that the Director personally guide much work, such as that of the Vacation Church School movement, etc. With this work we would charge our Director, and in it offer every possible assistance that we as pastors can bring.

2. As to the budget for next year. The Director, Brother Williamson, has been most magnanimous in his attitude on this matter, putting the cause of Religious Education always above his personal interest. We face a number of reductions of necessity, and reluctantly offer to you for approval a budget obviously less than adequate. The items are as follows:

BUDGET JULY 1, 1933, to JUNE 30, 1934

Anticipated Receipts

Designated Gifts	$1,000.00
Religious Education Assistant	500.00
Rally Day	1,200.00
Epworth League	150.00
Laymen	150.00
Total	$3,200.00

Budget Expenditures

Salary of Director	$1,750.00
Secretary	300.00
Debts	400.00
Holston Quest	200.00
Expenses, Postage and Travel	350.00
Interest and Taxes	50.00
Supplies	50.00
Miscellaneous	100.00
Total	$3,200.00

Sources of income include:

Designated World Service$1,000

Let us be reminded that designation must be made when pledges are taken, or with the general understanding that a part of the total pledge of the local church will be designated to this work.

In churches where Sunday School offerings constitute the major portion of World Service giving, the cause of Religious Education should be made a primary claim upon such funds.

Rally Day Offering$1,200

Increasingly support of Religious Education in our Conference must come from this source. We need, therefore, to plan to protect Rally Day, leaving it clear for this one emphasis.

Religious Education Asst.$ 500

We respectfully recommend to the Bishop and his Cabinet that Brother H. G. Williamson be re-appointed as our Director.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. BROYLES, Chairman,
Division Religious Education.

REPORT OF THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

To Holston Conference, October 11-15, 1933:

The downward trend in World Service giving in the last decade is deplorable. And with a further decrease of 27 percent for this year facing us, there is cause for greater alarm. About one-half of our missionaries at home and abroad have been recalled, with a like curtailment of other benevolent boards. This means that our church has been forced to retrench when its services are most needed in a world paralyzed by fear, suspicion and crime.

This decrease in giving, we believe, is largely due to economic conditions rather than to a lack of interest in world evangelism. However, the time has now arrived for us to go forward.

IN PLEDGING OUR WHOLE-HEARTED SUPPORT TO WORLD SERVICE, WE RECOMMEND:

First, that a World Service Council function in each charge.—Disc., Par. 413, Section 1, Division A.

Second, That pastors use every available means to educate and motivate the people in World Service.

Third, That the apportionment be properly budgeted at the beginning of the Conference year. The ratio of designation to our Conference causes must be made at the beginning of the year and should be paid pro-rata with the claims of the other boards.

Fourth, That October 23rd, be observed as Missionary Sunday for Holston Conference. Free literature and envelopes offered us should be used. We urge that all World Service money be sent to World Service Treasurer, Chicago, before October 31st.

Fifth, That every local church join in observing "Men and Missions Day," on November 19th, for a restudy of the whole mission program by fifty-two denominations. Movements gain momentum by the principles of accretion and co-operation. Literature may be received from the "Layman's Missionary Movement," 19 South LaSalle St., Chicago. We suggest that pastors appoint a committee of their strongest men to lead in this movement in their respective communities.

Sixth, That our slogan for next year be: "We do our part." Let us see that every local church makes a worthy contribution. Our objective is to go beyond the giving of any previous year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. W. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

D. B. COOPER, Secretary.

W. C. DANIEL.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

We are conscious of a God who is alive and at work in the world to transform it into the Kingdom of God. We live among men all of whom are potential children of God. We believe in the possibilities of a better world, by God and man working together to achieve it.

The Gospel of our Lord demands that we assert ourselves aggressively to build this better world. To be true to our Lord we must interpret our vital personal religious experience in terms of social action to transform society into the kingdom of God.

A few spiritual battle lines in the range of our present conference discussions follow:

1. What is our responsibility as a Christian Church concerning the National Recovery Act? We must be Christian in our support and comprehensive use of this national program, working ever with a higher spiritual purpose in mind. This act, fostered by the United States government from economic necessity to usher in a new economic order, needs the undergirding of spiritual interpretation else it will remain merely an effort to rehabilitate trade. We must be alert to work actively for the reconstruction of homes and the creation of favorable situations for the growth of Christian personality through all the industrial recovery program.

2. We must be on the ground with intelligent suggestion in our co-operation with the government program to develop the Tennessee River Valley. The development of the Tennessee Valley, of which we dare to dream, must be shot through with religious purpose and design if a new civilization is to result which more nearly approaches Christian ideals. The Church must see that all power and effort is used to produce a Christian quality of living instead of the mere erecting of monumental physical power, or we shall find ourselves in the predicament of being short of stature standing beside a thirty-five million dollar "Creator of Energy."

3. We must be Christian in our inter-racial dealings. We live as neighbors to the black race. We should be to them, brothers in the kingdom. We must see all men in a spiritual fellowship under the reign of God.

We must be Christian in our international attitude. We have boasted our courage as volunteers—typified by the dough-boys with bayonets in their hands, but this is not the method of our Lord to carry a Christian civilization throughout the world. If we follow him, peace must be planned and sought—"Not by might nor by power but by my spirit saith the Lord."

5. To be Christian we must secure for every man the right to live and to earn a living. As Christians we must heed the "elemental right of every man to work at honest labor and support their families. It is for us to set out to build a new world wherein our factories shall be operated to serve human need rather than to accumulate private wealth."

6. We are under obligation to be Christian within our own Churches as pastors with our official boards and as members of the Church in dealing with our fellow men. The Church in its dealings with men and institutions need to practice what it preaches.

In the interest of an awakened Social Conscience, the Committee on Social Service recommends:

FIRST, That all ministers and laymen join the objective, "Toward the Making of a Better World," which is to be the emphasis for the coming year of all of the Missionary Societies, Young People's organizations and Church Schools clearing through the International Council of Religious Education.

SECOND, That the social emphasis be brought to the attention of our entire group at the next annual conference to stir our hearts and minds to the crying need of these days for fearless preaching and living of the complete Gospel, transforming our society into the Kingdom of God.

Statements in quotation marks taken from the Rally Day program, 'Remaking Christ's World,' 1933.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

The Methodist Episcopal Church, realizing from its foundation that the use of liquor is destructive to body, soul, and mind, has always maintained as its objective a nation and a world whose people are sober and abstinent and whose laws brand as criminal all traffic in strong drink.

Varying historic conditions demand, from time to time, varying forms of attack in our battle to realize our ultimate objective. At the present, faced as we are with the repeal of the 18th Amendment, we propose the following points which we believe embrace the program that we as a church may most wisely pursue.

1.—The Church must change its emphasis from political, commercial and legalistic arguments back to a moral appeal.

2.—It must discard for a time at least its wholesale emphasis upon State and National prohibition and re-create an individual conscience against drinking and drunkenness.

3.—It must re-establish its teaching function that alcohol is a poison; a habit forming irritant, a depressant narcotic drug never needed in the normal human body, detrimental to every bodily function and ruinous to society.

4.—It must re-awaken the sense of individual and group responsibility for the existence of a legalized traffic which assaults the public welfare and bears upon its face the blood of men and the curse of God.

5.—It must convince its children, its members, and ultimately, the public that the manufacture and sale of beverage alcohol is not a business to be conducted, but a crime to be suppressed.

6.—It must patiently go all the way back by the same road that first led to national prohibition, that is, local suppression of drinking places, county option and state prohibition; national and federal prohibition ultimately, but only after forty States have been rewon.

7.—We must have an advanced educational program that reaches the management of the Church Schools, the State Universities, and convinces the responsible leaders that an alcohol cursed world must know the alcoholic problem through text books and instructors in every college and university of the land, and since our church schools are maintained as moral leaders, they must set the example of indoctrinating their students as to the nature and effects of beverage alcohol and show them the solution of the problem.

8.—We must lead our people to a sacrificial giving of the money that will be required to carry on this campaign. We must draw this financial support largely from the self-sacrificing poor and middle class since many of the rich, who are persuaded that liquor drinking will make the poor man's throat pay the rich man's taxes, are, as a group, opposing us. This means that all our work must be done economically and without waste.

9.—We are in hearty accord with the purpose of all prohibition organizations. However, we recommend that our ministers direct our people to make their contributions to the cause of prohibition through the channels of our Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals.

10.—We further recommend to the Holston Conference that the Committee on Temperance be regarded as a permanent committee whose duty it will be to co-operate with the Board of Temperance and Public Morals in promoting this cause throughout the year by carrying on a program of education and receiving collections for the board on which World Service credit will be given.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Christian education is inherent in any adequate application of the gospel of Christ. It is not only essential to both the extension and maintenance of the Kingdom of God, but is a part of the kingdom process. "I Am the Truth," says Christ; but before this truth can be effective in human character it must be presented to the mind and conscience, accepted, and translated into conduct. This calls for a Christian educational program.

The Conference Board of Education feels that the work of Christian education, taken in all its implications, is one of the most important phases of the church's task. We feel that it is imperative that we give this work the most careful consideration, that we adopt the plans that best commend themselves to us, and that we apply our efforts to the consummation of these plans. To accomplish what we should this work must become the concern of the pastors of the local churches and not left solely to the appointed leaders in the respective fields.

The work of the Board is divided into two fields. One is the field of Religious Education in the local church and the other is that of schools and colleges. The first is for the purpose of touching the masses of our constituency, and is capable of becoming a most effective method in promoting Christian ideals and life. The importance of the pastors becoming familiar with the educational approach so as to intelligently direct this work in his own church can hardly be over emphasized.

The Board would urge that honest effort be made to avert any unnecessary reduction in the salary of the director of Religious Education, who is appointed to this work, and is practically at the mercy of the pastors for his support.

The work of our schools and colleges demands our attention. The Christian school is essential to Christian progress. For not only are we to learn the truth in general, but we are to learn moral and spiritual truth. We must have Christian schools with the Christian emphasis to produce moral and spiritual leaders. Our church cannot perform its task of moral and spiritual leadership without these schools. Just now our schools are in critical need of moral and financial support which support must come from the local churches.

This introductory statement will be supplemented with more specific reports by the chairmen of the two divisions of the board.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LEWIS.

W. E. BISHOP.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

We, the Board of Education, hereby express our confidence and faith in the well-manned educational institutions of the Holston Conference, and commend their leadership for the splendid and heroic work being done in these difficult times.

We lament the heavy financial losses suffered by the University of Chattanooga, and rejoice that despite these difficulties the management has so adjusted their budget as to be able to carry forward their program without sacrificing the quality of work done.

Tennessee Wesleyan College, because of her limited endowment and the present general financial condition, has been forced to make drastic reductions in salaries and general expense. This school is facing one of the most serious crises in its history. However, despite these facts it is still maintaining its traditional high standard of work. But the Board is persuaded that if this college is to carry on it must have increased aid from the Conference.

Murphy Collegiate Institute is doing a distinctive type of work in that it is serving a group of students who would otherwise be denied educational privileges. Its facilities for providing self-help make this school peculiarly adapted to giving Christian school advantages at a remarkably low cost. But its financial limitations not only make it impossible for it to do its best work but also seriously threatens its future.

This Board highly appreciates the fine quality of work being done at Pittman Community Center by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. We gratefully acknowledge the contributions made by its many friends throughout American Methodism. (For further information see report of the Committee on Home Missions and Church Extension.)

Your Board, to which was referred a statement from the Executive Committee of Tennessee Wesleyan and a report by Rev. W. C. Martin of Murphy Collegiate Institute concerning the Financial needs of these institutions, makes the following recommendations:

First, that the sum of six thousand dollars be apportioned by the District Superintendents to the charges for the year 1933-34 for the support of these two schools.

Second, that this sum be divided as follows: Thirty-six hundred dollars to Tennessee Wesleyan College, and twenty-four hundred dollars to Murphy Collegiate Institute; and that of the amount received each institution be paid its pro rata share.

Third, we recommend that the District Superintendents in apportioning this sum take into consideration so far as possible all the financial factors pertaining to each charge.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. SMITH, Chairman of Division.

PITTMAN COMMUNITY CENTER

One of the great enterprises of the Board of Home Missions in the South is the work of Pittman Community Center. For more than twelve years, under the leadership of Dr. J. S. Burnett, this institution has been ministering to the mental, spiritual and social needs of the people of a vast area in a neglected section of the Smoky Mountains within the boundaries of the Holston Conference. Here is maintained a grade and high school accredited by the Department of Education of Tennessee. The present enrollment consists of 218 grade pupils and 74 high school students, with a faculty of 13 well trained Christian men and women. The faculty also carries on an extended program of religious activities in six churches within the surrounding community. Most of the older grade and high school students are led to Christ through evangelistic efforts before leaving school. In addition to the school and church work there is a small well equipped hospital through which a doctor and nurse minister to the health needs of a large area. Another important feature of this institution is the industrial and agricultural demonstration work. All features are interrelated so as to make a complete program for the building of Christian character.

BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS

Due to the tragic decrease in World Service offerings our Home Mission Board has found it increasingly difficult to administer the work in hand, we, the members of the Holston Conference in joint session, do hereby adopt the following resolution accepting its terms as our program for the year 1933-34.

WHEREAS, The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has across the years aided greatly in the pioneering adventures of the Conference, and in the establishment of many Churches and in financial assistance of many ministerial salaries, and

WHEREAS, Due to present economic conditions it has been almost impossible for the said Board to continue some exceedingly important work in the above mentioned situations, and

WHEREAS, Many of the Churches in the Conference have not daringly and in sacrifice attempted to stem the tide of falling incomes, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That—

1.—We pledge ourselves, ministers and laymen, to the most earnest effort, beginning immediately to bring our offerings for this important work back to normal.

2.—That we will urge our Connectional Stewards to make weekly or at least monthly remittances to the World Service Treasurer.

3.—That due to the problems arising from designated gift practices that disturb the equities of Methodism's Missionary, Educational and Benevolent programs, in the interest of our total task at home and abroad we deem it imperative that an equitable distribution of funds, preferably to be made by the constituted authorities. And that when designations are made in behalf of one cause, proportionate designations should be made to other recognized World Service causes. And that we recommend that such designations should be reckoned within the respective ratios of our World Service agencies.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. MORGAN,
G. T. FRANCISCO,
R. L. STAPLETON,

Special Sub-committee of the Conference
Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

REPORT OF THE RESERVE PENSION COMMISSION OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE, OCTOBER 12, 1933

The Treasurer's report has been given and will be published so I shall not take time in my report to review it only to say it reveals two or three facts which will be the basis of my recommendations.

It develops the fact that there is standing out and due more than $5,000 owed by the members of the Conference on the fund which we voted as a Conference to pay to carry on this campaign and as part of our share in the fund.

We recommend that we make the payment of this, our project, for the next two years on a basis which will make it possible with the reduced salaries.

That we repay it on the following basis: Each man receiving less than $1,000 pay one dollar a month, from $1,000 to $1,500, one dollar and a half; from $1,500 to $2,500, two dollars a month, and those receiving over $2,500, three dollars a month until the respective amounts owed are paid.

We recommend this for two reasons which are very apparent on the face of the proposal. First, for the sake of the fund so that we can carry on and meet the expenses for the next year or two without taking the money out of monies coming into the fund from other sources, and second for our own sakes so that this money will not be taken out of our annuities when we retire as the Conference voted to do.

We recognize the very serious need of providing a pension for each man of this Conference within the immediate future. While we are active and are drawing some sort of a salary we do not visualize that hour when with sad hearts we will step out of the active ranks and settle somewhere for a few years of quiet rest until the call comes out of the unseen land.

Most of us take this attitude because that day seems so far away. But it is? Let us take a few statistics out of our history. The average length of active service in this Conference for the past twenty-five years is twenty-three years and six months.

The average of the period of retirement is twelve years, or about half the time of the active period.

One other fact must be taken into account. During the past twenty-five years we have lost by death three and three-tenths men each year.

Interpreting these facts we can prophesy fairly accurately that within the next ten years 33 of us will have gone to our reward and will very probably leave a widow and perhaps younger children without much income.

Second, within the next ten years 45 will have retired or by age and condition of health should have retired.

Thirty-nine men now active in the Conference have served already their average period of twenty-three and a half years. Some have gone far beyond that period. We all know as we study this group that some of these faithful men would retire and should for their own health's sake, to say nothing of the good of the churches, but they can not because they have nothing to retire on and the compensation from our fund is so small, and will be increasingly small if these should retire, that they can not live on the amount allowed.

Therefore, out of the 145 men now members of the Conference according to our last Minutes within the next ten years, 119 of us will have died, been retired or will have served the average term for the men of this Conference. Therefore, this effects immediately 82 per cent of us.

Can we afford to sit idly by and allow ourselves to drift up to this time if there is some way to help ourselves?

In the first place we can not expect to go ahead with the individual canvas for our funds for another year or perhaps two, but we do ask that we grant the privilege to no other local cause to enter the field in a drive until we have had an opportunity to complete this as it is the gravest situation before us.

Next we ask the question is there something in the meantime we can do to help ourselves? We think there is.

GROUP INSURANCE has been accepted and used by railroads, factories and all sorts of institutions and more recently by ministers in different denominations. I entered the group insurance plan in Gennessee Conference and paid my share until I transferred and the plan was such then that I could not transfer it with my Conference transfer. That point is clarified in the new plan.

When group insurance first was offered they had no experience in figuring the liability and consequently they set the premium high enough to take no risk of loss. Ten years ago when I entered it was $27.00 a thousand. They found they do not need this much and it has been reduced until today it ranges from 75 cents to 85 cents a month per thousand. Then the Government stepped in and passed a law that no participant in group insurance can pay over 60 cents per month per thousand. It is necessary for us to raise the extra few cents a month some other way.

Here is the plan: At least 75 per cent of the members must take the insurance to make it effective. The rate will be set when the company has the ages of all of the men participating so as to get the average.

The rate of taking the insurance should be on basis of salary. Those getting $1,000 or less, $1,000 insurance; $1,000 to $1,500, $1,500; $1,500 to 2,500, $2,000 insurance; over $2,500, $3,000.

The Reserve Pension Fund shall in each case be the beneficiary. However, I have suggested to the company a plan whereby the insurance will not cost any of us anything eventually. That the Conference board shall pay in case of death of the participant 25 per cent of the insurance to the family of the insured and 75 per cent to the fund.

In case that one leaves the Conference or is located the Conference shall pay him the amount paid in which 3 per cent interest.

Thus every man is insured against any loss by entering the plan.

It is thought not advisable to take any of the retired men into the plan as it would raise the rate to such an extent tha it would unprofitable. Of course they will participate in the funds coming in from the insurance.

The funds to be distributed on the same per year of service basis as now.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Conference year, 1923-33, has been one of real testing, fraught, as it has been, with economic problems on the part of both preachers and people, make it very fitting indeed that Second Church, Knoxville, was selected as the seat of this Conference. We, your committee, believe that the deep spirituality of the beloved pastor of Second Church, as Dean Massey pointed out on the opening night, is a much needed tonic today.

The several pastors and the people of the Knoxville District are to be complimented for their gracious, kindly and efficient manner in which they have provided for the comfort and needs of the delegates and visitors while in attendance upon the Conference.

We do not believe that material things, such as dollars and cents, express the highest interest of this Conference. This conviction seems to be abundantly affirmed by the general spirit manifested in all the Conference proceedings and by expressions on the part of the different speakers and the men of the Conference. We are learning more clearly these days that "life consisteth not in the abundance of things possessed."

Out of the experiences of the year, and the spiritual emphasis of the Conference sessions, comes the unmistakably evidence of faith in God's ever abiding love. Truly, to our loving, gracious Heavenly Father's care, do we owe the successes of the year.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, FIRST: That we express our hearty thanks and sincere appreciation:

To Bishop Wallace E. Brown for his open and most brotherly and efficient manner in which he administered the affairs of the Conference.

To Mrs. Wallace E. Brown, who being accidentally injured, was unable to attend the Conference, for the memory of her gracious and lovely spirit of a year ago.

To the pastors and laymen of the Knoxville District for their splendid part rendered in the entertainment of the Conference.

To the splendid women of Second Church for their very fine manner in which the food has been prepared and served to all delegates and visitors.

To the several Districts for their faithful part in the plan of entertaining the Conference.

To the laymen for their most hearty spirit of co-operation and fellowship.

To our hosts and hostesses, who opened their homes and so graciously entertained us.

To Rev. George J. Creswell for his untiring efforts to make everyone comfortable and happy during their stay in Knoxville.

To the committee of ladies of Second Church for thoughtfully providing the beautiful flowers and ferns that have decorated the church.

To Miss Ruth Bennecker and her fine helpers who so efficiently assigned the guests to their places of entertainment.

To the hotels of the city for their service.

To the Methodist Book Concern for again sending us their two splendid representatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fritsche, and also for their fine array of books.

To the newspapers of the City for the generous space given in their columns for reporting the proceedings of the Conference.

To Dr. Merle N. English of the Board of Education for his interest and inspiring messages in behalf of Christian Education.

To Dr. George C. Douglass of the Book Concern for his forceful presentation of our interests in the Book Concern.

To Dr. Clarence True Wilson for his fair and fearless presentation of the temperance question as the greatest moral issue of the day.

To Dr. MacRossie, of the Board of Ministerial training, for his great address before the Conference and his very helpful suggestions to our local Board.

To Dr. Wm. J. Davidson of Illinois Wesleyan University for his great address on Education.

To Dean F. M. Massey of the University of Tennessee for his inspiring address of welcome.

To Dr. H. A. Morgan of the Tennessee Valley Authority for his informing address on the great Cove Creek Development project.

To Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for his most inspiring message.

To Dr. Ralph W. Lloyd, of Maryville College, for his wonderful address.

To Dr. Cartwright of the Board of Foreign Missions, for his helpful and inspiring message.

To all those who in any way have made a contribution to the success of this Conference session.

SECONDLY: That in consideration of the high inspirational influences that have converged to make this ninetieth session of the Holston Conference one long to be remembered, it is perfectly fitting that we as preachers and laymen do definitely reconsecrate and commit ourselves this year to the high task of bringing in the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,

R. C. ELZEY,

F. H. CAREY,

Committee.

RESOLUTION ON ADVOCATE-JOURNAL FUND

WHEREAS, The interest on the Methodist Advocate-Journal Endowment Fund as provided by the following Conferences: Alabama, Blue Ridge-Atlantic, Central Tennessee, Georgia, St. Johns

River, and Holston, is not now being used for the publication of an Advocate, and

WHEREAS, It is provided in the Constitution that any profits from this Fund aside from the publication of the Advocate shall be distributed among the Conference Claimants of the above Conferences in proportion to the number of Advocate subscribers provided by each of the said Conferences; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Trustees of the Methodist Advocate-Journal Endowment Fund be requested to make such distribution among said Conferences according to the number of subscribers as of July 1, 1932, when the publication of the Advocate ceased, and that the Trustees notify the patronizing Conferences of this action, and request their approval; be it further

RESOLVED, That this action shall in no wise infringe upon the principal of said fund or the purpose for which it was secured; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this resolution become effective upon the approval of said patronizing Conferences.

Respectfully submitted,

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Holston Conference has learned with great regret of the automobile accident which befell Bishop and Mrs. Wallace E. Brown, a few days ago. We rejoice that Bishop Brown is permitted to preside at this session of the Conference and assure him of our cordial welcome.

It is a matter of deep disappointment that Mrs. Brown's injuries will deprive us of her presence, whose life and labors are an inspiration.

RESOLVED, That we request the Secretary to send her our sincere sympathy and affectionate greeting.

RESOLUTIONS—TENNESSEE VALLEY PROJECTS

WHEREAS, There is proposed by the Government of the United States a development project in the Valley of the Tennessee which contemplates the flooding of a vast area in which there are located hundreds of Methodist families and several Methodist Churches, and

WHEREAS, The planned development will mean not only the building of a dam at Cove Creek and the electrification of a great valley together with new and varied industrial developments, but also the building of what might be termed a new civilization, and

WHEREAS, Such a project affecting as it does the most vital religious responsibilities for which the Church is responsible, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, October 11-15, 1933.

First: That this conference express its desire to co-operate with the Tennessee Valley Authority in all of its undertakings which are consistent with the teachings of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ; and be it further

RESOLVED, For the purpose of meeting the obligations, responsibilities and privileges afforded by the Tennessee Valley development:

Second: That this Conference create and empower a commission which shall administer the affairs of the church as they shall be affected by the Tennessee Valley Authority. This commission shall act in co-operative and advisory capacity to all regularly constituted disciplinary agencies of the Denomination and Annual Conference, and in those matters not covered by such agencies shall have executive power.

Third: That this Conference earnestly request that the denominational Board of Home Missions and Church Extension make a generous allocation of funds to its program in the Tennessee Valley project. These funds shall be used for survey and administrative purposes, for the procuring of land and physical equipment in model communities, and for the furnishing of an efficient personnel for the same.

Fourth: That this Conference request the Home Missions Council to make such studies and to use such influence and authorities as it may possess to insure within the area of the Tennessee Valley development adequate religious privileges to all the people without the waste due to competitive denominational enterprise.

Respectfully submitted,

JOE N. HAMPTON.

EXCHANGE OF TERRITORY

The following paper has been prepared by Rev. I. P. Martin, Presiding Elder of the Knoxville District of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and Rev. W. H. Ragan, District Superintendent of the Knoxville District of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the joint suggestion of Bishop Ainsworth and Bishop Brown, for presentation to the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, both of which meet at Knoxville in their annual sessions for 1933:

"A great part of East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia is occupied by the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Each of these churches has a Holston Conference. In many communities, in which there are but few Methodists, the two denominations maintain two separate organizations, neither of which has sufficient numbers or strength to do efficient work. Whatever may have seemed to justify this condition in the past, there is no means of justifying its continuance.

The two Holston Conferences shared in common the history and glory of pioneer achievements. To each of them belongs the years from 1783 to 1844, sixty-one years of the golden period of American Methodism. Despite the rivalry arising from the occupancy of the same territory, we have lived together in cordial good fellowship now for more than sixty years.

It has long been evident that needless rivalries should be abated and that Methodism in Holston should consolidate her forces for the promotion of the Kingdom of God. The condition to which our churches have been brought by the trying experiences of the past few years has greatly emphasized the need of drawing together for mutual purposes. The further continuance of present conditions imperils the usefulness of both denominations in many communities; therefore, be it Resolved:

1.—The Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church believes that it is the duty of Methodism to make such changes and transfers of territory as may be practicable in providing a ministry of the Methodist Church for all of our territory.

2.—That a Commission of five, three preachers and two laymen, be appointed by the Presiding Bishop, who shall be authorized and empowered to promote the transfer and exchange of territory with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when such changes and transfers shall have been approved by Quarterly Conferences of the churches affected and by the Commission on Inter-denominational Relations.

Signed: W. H. RAGAN.

The reason my total cash reported here is more than shown in my recapitulation total is that $65.75 received during the year from Soddy and South Pittsburg, was entered in the voucher column of Sheet "B" and not transferred to the cash column, and parts of dollars could not be entered. The above is correct and balances with receipts, deposits and disbursements. After copy had gone to the Printer I discovered $25.00 for Conference Claimants paid by Johnson City Circuit and omitted by the assistant. I have paid it to Brother Peters, Treas. I paid to G. J. Creswell $117.00, all the cash reported to me for Conference Entertainment. Other money was collected by district treasurers and turned over to Brother Russell, Conference Treasurer Entertainment Fund, of which I have no record. Brother Creswell will have the record of it all. There may be a few errors in the copy the Printer has which neither he nor any human being could correct who does not understand the Treasurer's Blanks. We have $58.92 from last year's receipts tied up in the closed East Tennessee Bank, Knoxville, as reported to Conference.

Income from Connectional sources was less this year than last, but the Conference gave more for Episcopal Fund and Conference Claimants, but not for all purposes. Amounts sent by pastors to the Episcopal Fund during the year will bring the cash in amount of $1,544.00 I sent to $2,076—the largest amount I recall. Conference Claimants receive several hundred dollars more also. Hope we make it even more this year. Ten thousand thanks to the faithful assistants who helped me with the burden of the Treasurer's job. If Conference Treasurers and Statisticians do not need the prayers of all God's saints, nobody does.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
Post Office Box, 246,
Elizabethton, Tennessee.

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT FUND

Have this date, November 16, received from Brother G. J. Creswell report of cash paid to him by Brother W. L. Russell, Conference Treasurer, this fund, which, when added to amounts paid through me will be:

Bristol District	$ 48.50
Chattanooga District	99.10
Harriman District	47.00
Johnson City District	94.00
Knoxville District	119.00
Total all Districts	$407.60

The above was paid as follows:

Paid by me to Brother Creswell	$117.00
Paid by Brother W. L. Russell to Brother Creswell	172.60
Vouchers reported Knoxville District.....	118.00
Total as above reported to me	$407.60

Add to above the actual cost of entertainment and the figures indicate that the Churches of Knoxville and Knoxville District carried far more than their share. Not one of the Districts could be entertained on the District payments above. Entertainment is a whole Conference matter. We should do more. I am sending more for Elizabethton. Supplemental report came too late to get into the Statistical table.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer.

Memoirs

REV. MARION CLARK BRUNER

Marion Clark Bruner was born near Augusta, Ill., December 12, 1855. He graduated from East Tennessee Wesleyan University in 1881, and was received on trial in Holston Conference the same year. He was in the effective relation for thirty-eight years. He died at LaFollette, Tenn., May 30, 1933. Funeral services were conducted from the LaFollette Church, and interment was in New Gray Cemetery, Knoxville, Tenn. In accord with an expressed wish of the deceased, R. L. Stapleton and J. M. Melear delivered memorial addresses. Other members of Holston Conference taking part in the services at the church and cemetery were his district superintendent, J. M. Hampton; his pastor, W. A. Sharp; G. T. Francisco, Mark M. More, C. F. Lucas, S. A. Hopper, M. H. Torry, and W. L. Oliver.

Brother Bruner was first married to Miss Annie Spargo, December 24, 1882. She died July 12, 1920. Eight children blessed this union, five of whom are living. His second marriage was to Miss Flossie Maupin, January 10, 1924. She, with three children born to this union, survive.

Brother Bruner was a forceful preacher and a faithful pastor. He was brave in affliction, cheerful in disposition, firm in conviction, resolute in purpose, and loyal in love. With sane purpose, controlled ambition, and enthusiasm he carved his destiny. He gave God a fair chance at all his life and has attained a rich and eternal reward.

REV. E. R. BRANAM

Rev. E. R. Branam was born in Sevier county, Tenn., June 30, 1870. Departed this life February 10, 1933. He was married to Lula Violet Foster December 19, 1888. To this union was born ten children, five boys and five girls, one boy and two girls preceded him to their future home.

Surviving are his widow, four sons, Walter E. of Portsmouth, Va.; George W. and Charles M. of Lakeland, Fla., and W. Haskel, pastor of Maynardsville charge, M. E. Church; three daughters, Mrs. Ellen Ivey of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Clarence Hale of Greeneville, Tenn., and Mrs. Violet Wilkerson of Knoxville.

He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1903; full membership in 1905; ordained Deacon by Bishop Fowler in 1905; Elder by Bishop Bristol in 1920, and served the following charges: Chestnut Hill, 1903-1904; Little River, 1905-1908; Jefferson City and Dandridge, 1909-1910; Chestnut Hill, 1911; Oakwood at Knoxville, Tenn., 1912-1914; Alton Park at Chattanooga, 1915; Oakwood, 1916; Whittle Springs at Knoxville, 1917-1918; granted one year for rest, 1919;

Inskip at Knoxville, 1920-1921; Oakdale, 1922-1924; Dayton, 1925-1927; Burlington at Knoxville, 1928-1929; Retired, 1930. Soon after he retired he went to Lakeland, Fla., for his health, where he resided until God called him to his Eternal home.

God gave to us the beloved father, the devoted husband, the loyal minister of the Gospel.

A great Christian was he, to whom God delegated a special service in life, the results of whose work will outlast the crumbling tooth of time. He was a man of whom it can well be said that lives were ennobled, burdens were lightened, and souls were enriched for having known him. His was a princely character, whose life motto was written large over the door of his great heart, and that motto like that of his Lord and Master, whom he loved and served so well, was summed up in just one word—Others.

In the church which he loved so well, on the streets, or in the home, his name was a synonym for all that was kind and good. His noble life, day by day, was a living sermon infinitely more eloquent, far-reaching and powerful than any which mortal lips could frame.

Again the door to the Father's House of many Mansions has been opened, and a loved father and faithful Christian minister has passed from our sight. Sad beyond expression we would be if we were without that glorious hope of meeting him again in that glory land beyond. But the same mighty voice which spoke the words, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life," and also said, "Because I live, ye shall live also." So our joy can shine through the gloom and tears in the promise and assurance of our Risen Lord that we shall meet our loved one again never more to part. For, just as surely as death follows life, just so surely the Resurrection follows death. And happy is he who can come to the end of life's journey and be able to say as could our departed loved one in the words of the Apostle Peter, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy that begotten us again unto a lively hope by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead to an inheritance, in corruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in Heaven for you." —1 Peter 1:3-4.

Funeral services were conducted at the Oakwood M. E. Church, Knoxville, by the Revs. G. T. Francisco, W. H. Ragan, H. M. Hawk, E. M. Boyd and J. T. Bird.

His body was buried in Logan's Chapel Cemetery, the Rev. R. H. Thames officiating at the grave. The wilderness of beautiful flowers under which he slept, attested the high regard in which he was held.

REV. JOHN FRANKLIN GILES

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

In this faith the Reverend John Franklin Giles lived and labored, and in this faith he died. He enjoyed and exemplified that consciousness of victory in Christ that he had proclaimed during his thirty years of active ministry in the Virginia and Holston Conferences of Methodism.

Brother Giles was born October 15, 1858, in Washington County, Virginia, and died at his home in Athens, Tenn., March 21, 1933.

In his youthful days, after taking the school work that the schools in his native county offered him, he attended Mendota Academy and also took work at state normal schools. He then gave thirteen years of his life to the teaching profession.

But he felt a clear call to the ministry, to which he yielded, and was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference in 1895. In 1897 he was admitted to full membership. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Andrews, and in 1900 Bishop Hurst ordained him Elder.

In 1900 Brother Giles was married to Maggie Spahr of Wise County, Virginia, to which union was born one child. But in 1901 this marriage was broken by the death of his wife, followed soon after by the loss of his child at the age of nine months. In 1908 he was married to Miss Emma Virginia Bishop of Washington County, Virginia, a woman of deep piety and fine intelligence, whose faithfulness to him and his work was always in evidence.

The labors of our departed Brother fell among some of the most difficult fields within his conferences. But never was a charge so difficult but that he accepted the appointment without murmuring and rejoiced in the privilege of preaching the Unsearchable Riches. Never was a home or heart so lowly but that he ministered gladly. In his ministry he endured hardness as a good soldier, lived sacrificially, and was undaunted by the exposure to severe weather that he was so frequently called upon to face. In sixteen years of labor he missed only one appointment, and that on account of high water.

As a theologian he was conservative, holding to traditional Methodist doctrine; as a preacher he was expository-evangelistic; as a pastor he was faithful, his very presence bespeaking the healing power of Christ. He was unusually persistent and effective as a personal worker.

He and his family moved to Athens in 1923, and in 1924 he took the retired relation. But he did not retire in spirit. He was faithful to his church and constant in his attendance at the services. He took great delight in superintending a Sunday School on Brother Sivil's charge.

Perhaps there has never been a man in Athens for whom the citizens of Athens had a more profound respect and in whose religious life they had a more genuine confidence. In season and out of season he was witnessing for Christ.

The afternoon before his death he and I visited an elderly friend who was in poor health. It refreshed my heart to see these two friends of long standing rejoice in the Lord as they talked together. They spoke of the approaching Exit and rejoiced in the hope of the glory of God. They looked forward to their entrance into that Better Country. I read the Scripture and Brother Giles led in prayer. In his prayer was the note of assurance and victory. We then took our leave and turned toward town. As we walked along I noticed that his form was stooped and his step faltering. But his spirit was triumphant. He spoke in kindly terms of his brethren in the ministry in and around Athens, with special words of affection for Brother Rowan and Brother Ketron. After he and I separated he visited other friends and returned to his home perhaps a little after dark on that cool March evening.

Next morning about nine o'clock he departed to that Other Home toward which he had been travelling so faithfully through the years, knowing that

"Death has its life,
Its door opens to heaven,
Eternally Christ is King."

MRS. J. D. LAWSON

Mrs. Hettie Evaline Morton Lawson was born February 23, 1840 in Blount County, Tenn. She was married to Rev. J. B. Lawson February 23, 1860.

She was a true wife and helpmeet, devoting herself to the tender care of her husband until his death twenty-seven years ago.

Mrs. Lawson spent her last days with her daughter, Mrs. John Gobble, Star Route, Sevierville, departing this life September 23, 1933.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, assisted by Rev. R. M. Huff at Wear's Valley M. E. Church. Interment in the Mattox Cemetery.

Mrs. Lawson lived a long life of humble devotion to Christ, never growing pessimistic and sour as she grew older, but growing more tender and kind with the years.

D. W. JENKINS.

MRS. I. G. CROWDER

Maude Withrow Crowder was born September 11, 1890, in Clay County, West Virginia, and died February 9, 1933, in Christ Hospital, our Methodist Hospital in Cincinnati where she had been taken by Brother Crowder at her own request in the hope of prolonging her life. On September 8, 1908 she was united in marriage to Rev. I. G. Crowder which union was blessed with three sons and five daughters, all of whom survive their mother save one son who died in infancy.

Mrs. Crowder came into a saving faith of Jesus Christ and surrendered her life to Him as her Lord and Savior in her early youth and ever remained His faithful, loyal and faithful follower to the very end. Although for a number of years in poor health, she was deeply and incessantly concerned with the two paramount interests in her life, namely, her home and her Church. Truly her delight was in serving her Lord and her family. An excellent companion for whom a care-worn minister is eternally grateful and a mother whose love and affection was always evident in caring for her children, Mrs. Crowder felt that she could not do enough for her family.

Gratefully remembered by her Church, eternally called blessed by her companion, children and a multitude of friends, as she had lived, quietly she stepped from the disturbing and trying scenes of this earthly life in answer to the summons of her Lord and Master in the early morning hours of February 9.

Her funeral was conducted by Rev. J. E. Milburn, assisted by Rev. J. F. Reed and Rev. W. E. Bishop in the Mt. Pleasant Church in Greene County, Tennessee, and the remains buried according to her request in the cemetery narby Her favorite hymn was "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" this stanza of which typifies her patient, prayerful life.

"Have we trials and temptations
Is their troubles anywhere
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there."

W. E. BISHOP.
